A Wicked Little Boy's Trouble.
A mother writes to Dr. Carpenter, Bangor, Maine, dated Feb. 21, 1899, as follows: "My little boy, who is now three years and six months old, has been suffering from a severe case of whooping cough for several weeks. He has lost his appetite, and is very weak. I have tried every remedy I could find, but nothing has done him any good. Please send me some of your medicine, as I am sure it will cure him."

CERTIFICATES OF CURES.

These Testimonials are genuine, and are a few among hundreds received in Maine during Dr. C.'s last few years practice. They are advertised that any person interested can investigate the truthfulness of them and satisfy themselves. It will be noticed that cures are PERMANENT. DR. C. IS REQUESTED TO REFER TO MANY OTHERS, RESIDENTS OF BANGOR AND VICINITY, WHO HAVE RECEIVED BENEFITS OF CURES UNDER HIS TREATMENT.

Cataract.
I have been suffering from a cataract in my right eye for several years. I have tried every remedy I could find, but nothing has done me any good. I have heard of Dr. Carpenter, and I have written him for some of his medicine. I have now received it, and I am sure it will cure me. I am very grateful to Dr. Carpenter for his kindness and skill.
